

Tug of War Rules—2017

When played competitively Tug of War has some basic rules.
Listed below are some general guidelines:

Rules Concerning Teams

- ◆ Open Single Elimination—Number of places paid back will depend on number of teams entered. 70% payback with added money!
- ◆ Entry fee is $ 50 PER for one (1) Five (5) person team. Fair admission is free on Thursday, July 20, 2017. Make sure you invite all your family, friends and co-workers to come cheer your team on!
- ◆ Teams will be made up of Five (5) members, with one person designated as the anchor. Company/Business tug team requires two out of the five member team to be employed by the company/business that has registered.
- ◆ The anchor takes the position at the end of the rope.

Rules Concerning Conduct

- ◆ The rope must go under the arms. Pulling over the shoulder is prohibited.
- ◆ The elbow must not go below the knee (Known as locking)
- ◆ A members body other than their feet cannot be touching the ground for a prolonged period of time.

Rules Concerning Game Play

- ◆ A marking on the rope will indicate the center, aligned with the center marking on the playing field.
- ◆ A marking on each side of the center marking will represent each team
- ◆ Once the game is started the team that succeeds in pulling their opponents marking over the center line will win. Referee whistle to begin and end tug.
- ◆ CASH PRIZES — 70% payback along with added money! - The more teams that enter, the bigger the cash award and the more places that will be paid back!
- ◆ First place winner will receive the 2017 BUSINESS TUG Trophy along with cash prize and bragging rights!

ORDER OF TUGS—First Tug at 6:00 p.m.

Order of tugs will be determined by random draw.

Open Single Elimination — Number of places paid back depends on the number of teams entered!